The preparation is as follows: In a solitary place, build a four-cornered sangkhang (hearth for the smoke offering). Collect whatever branches of good wood that you can find, which are fruit yielding, not poisonous and have no thorns, such as juniper, etc. Also collect flour mixed with butter, many of the finest foods, the three white foods, the three sweet foods, fruit, grains, natural medicines, silks, tea, alcohol, milk, the "turquoise beverage" (yukyem) "the golden beverage" (serkyem), and so on.
